Hi there! My name is Dennis George. I was originally born in India and have been living in Australia for 21 years. I studied animation, film and Japanese while I was in university and now teach English.

I have been to Japan 3 times. I enjoy drawing, playing guitar and building jigsaw puzzles. I hope to teach you English in a fun, enjoyable atmosphere while helping you gain the confidence, accuracy, and courage to communicate in English well. I look forward to helping you be the best you can be!

Monday

Hi There! My name is Jay Crystall. I'm originally from New York, and proud to call Japan my new home for 10 years. I've been teaching at Doshisha for 7 years and started my own education based business in Kyoto. I'm deeply committed to helping students develop confident English communication skills and to build bridges of culture and understanding to and from Japan. I recently published a book about a foreigner's experiences and perspective on modern day Japan. Additionally, I perform, record and have many videos of my original music online. Let's study!

Hello, my name is Betty Kwan. After studying journalism in university in the US, I have lived in Nara. I've had a variety of jobs like teaching, translating, editing, designing, homeschooling etc. I know English is a difficult language to learn, but I enjoy helping people gain confidence and accuracy in speaking and writing. I strive to make English learning enjoyable. I look forward to helping students with their English in whatever area needed.

Tuesday

Hello, my name is Kya Kim. I am half-American, half-Korean, born and raised in Kyoto. I went to university and graduate school in the United States where I studied Peace and Conflict Studies and Journalism. I have lived and worked in Japan, the US, Austria, Turkey, and Spain. Now I am a lecturer at three universities and the Director of an NPO called Peace Mask Project. I am passionate about helping students to improve their English communication skills to broaden their perspectives and achieve their goals. Let's work together to make your dreams come true!

Hi there! My name is Becki and I'm from Yorkshire, England. I attended the University of Manchester and studied English and American Literature. I also used to work in corporate communications, but now I teach English in Japan - and I love it! I live in Naha right now but I have also lived in Tokyo, Osaka, and Kagoshima. I love travelling, drinking coffee, and meeting new people. How about you? What do you like to do? Come and meet me online and let's enjoy studying English together. I will do my best to help you achieve your goals.
